

Lifetime Membership

Dear Phil,

We are contacting you to inform you of some crucial developments at Femdom Cave that will inevitably affect your lifetime membership deal.

In light of recent market changes and the challenges we've faced after being banned once again by Lulu and Amazon KDP, we are considering a strategic shift to an Affiliate Marketing model. This new approach is incompatible with our current 'revenue share' structure for authors and the publisher, necessitating the termination of the lifetime membership deal.

As part of this transformative journey, we will be operating under the new banner of Azon Publishing. While Femdom Cave will no longer exist as a publisher, we have successfully negotiated to retain the domain for the website, ensuring a seamless transition for our valued buyers and authors.

We fully understand that this news may come as a disappointment, and for that, we offer our sincerest apologies. However, we are confident that these changes are essential for the long-term sustainability and growth of our platform, ultimately benefiting our community of readers and authors alike.

Should you have any questions or concerns, our team is readily available to assist you.

Kind Regards

Phil
